Financial Agreement & Policies

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

 ALL ESTIMATED FEES ARE DUE AT THE TIME OF SERVICE**

Due to the many different insurance plans available, we recommend that you contact your employer or insurance representative to obtain details regarding your benefits.

You will be responsible for charges denied by your insurance policy.
Past due accounts will be subject to an 18% APR monthly finance charge.
A $35 fee will automatically be applied to your account for any returned payments.

It is your responsibility to provide current and accurate billing information. Please provide updated information prior to receiving any additional care.

For our patients with dental insurance:

We will gladly process your insurance claims with the following understanding:

Initial _____ Dental insurance is an agreement between you and your insurance company.
We can only estimate your dental benefits. The estimate is not a guarantee of payment from your insurance policy.

Initial _____ Payment is expected the day services are rendered. This includes co-payment and deductibles.

Initial _____ Insurance payments not paid after 60 days will become your complete responsibility. You agree to pay your full balance after 60 days from the date of service.

For Our Patients Without Dental Insurance:

If you do not have dental insurance, you will be given a 5% discount off of services when you pay in full on the date of service. If you are over 59 years of age, you will be given an additional 5% discount on services (for a total 10% discount).

For your convenience, we accept cash, checks, VISA, MasterCard, American Express and Discover.

Financial Options:

We also offer financing options with no interest payments on approved credit.

CANCELLATION POLICY

If you are unable to keep your scheduled appointment, please call 360-225-5600 to let us know as soon as possible.

If an appointment is missed or cancelled without 24 hour notice (excluding weekends and holidays), you will be charged $50. Missed appointments are NOT covered by insurance.

As a courtesy, appointment reminder calls are made prior to your appointment. Please provide us with the best possible contact number so we may contact you in regards to your appointment.

Exceptions to the charge are made on a case-by-case basis.

Your signature serves as acknowledgment that you have been informed of the policy. If the patient is a minor, the parent or legal guardian is responsible for the charge.

Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how health information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully. The privacy of your health information is important to us.

OUR LEGAL DUTY

We are required by applicable federal and state law to maintain the privacy of your health information. We are also required to give you this Notice about our privacy practices, our legal duties, and your rights concerning your health information. We must follow the private practices that are described in the Notice while it is in effect. This Notice takes effect October 1, 2010 and will remain in effect until we replace it.

We reserve the right to change our privacy practices and the terms of this Notice at any time, provided such changes are permitted by applicable law. We reserve the right to make the changes in our privacy practices and the new terms of our Notice effective for all health information that we maintain, including health information we created or received before we made the changes. Before we make a significant change in our privacy practices, we will change this Notice and make the new Notice available upon request.

You may request a copy of our Notice at any time. For more information about our privacy practices, or for additional copies of this Notice, please contact us using the information listed at the end of this Notice.

USES AND DISCLOSURES OF HEALTH INFORMATION

We use and disclose health information about you for treatment, payment and healthcare operations. For example:

Treatment: We may use or disclose your health information to a physician or other healthcare provider providing treatment to you.

Payment: We may use and disclose your health information to obtain payment for services we provide to you.

Healthcare Operations: We may use and disclose your health information in connection with our healthcare operations. Healthcare operations include quality assessment and improvement activities, reviewing the competence or qualifications of healthcare professionals, evaluating practitioner and provider performance, conducting training programs, accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities.

Your Authorization: In addition to our use of your health information for treatment, payment or healthcare operations, you may give us written authorization to use your health information or to disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give us an authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time. Your revocation will not affect any use or disclosures permitted by your authorization while it was in effect. Unless you give us written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your health information for any reason except those described in the Notice.

To Your Family and Friends: We must disclose your health information to you, as described in the Patient Rights section of the Notice. We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend or other person to the extent necessary to help with your healthcare or with payment for your healthcare, but only if you agree we may do so.

Persons Involved In Care: We may use or disclose health information to notify, or assist in the notification of (including identifying or locating) a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care, of your location, your general condition, or death. If you are present, then prior to use or disclosure of your health information, we will provide you with an opportunity to object to such uses or disclosures. In the event of your incapacity or emergency circumstances, we will disclose health information based on a determination using our professional judgment disclosing only health information that is directly relevant to the person's involvement in your healthcare. We will also use our professional judgment and our experience with common practice to make reasonable inferences of your best interest in allowing a person to pick up filled prescriptions, medical supplies, x-rays or other similar forms of health information.

Marketing Health-Related Services: We will not use your health information for marketing communications without your written authorization.

Required By Law: We may use or disclose your health information when we are required to do so by law.

Abuse or Neglect: We may disclose your health information to appropriate authorities if we reasonably believe that you are a possible victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence or the possible victim of other crimes. We may disclose your health information to the extent necessary to avert a serious threat to your health or safety of the health or safety of others.

National Security: We may disclose to military authorities the health information of Armed Forces personnel under certain circumstances. We may disclose to authorized federal officials health information required for lawful intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities. We may disclose to correctional institution or law enforcement official having lawful custody of protected health information of inmate or patient under certain circumstances.

Appointment Reminders: We may use or disclose your health information to provide you with appointment reminders (such as voice mail messages, postcards or letters).

PATIENT RIGHTS

Access: You have the right to look at or get copies of your health information, with limited exceptions. You may request that we provide copies in a format other than photocopies. We will use the format you request unless we cannot practicably do so. (You must request in writing to obtain access to your health information. You may obtain a form to request access by using the contact information listed at the end of the Notice.)

Disclosure Accounting: You have the right to receive a list of instances in which we or our business associates disclosed your health information for purposes, other than treatment, payment, healthcare operations and certain other activities, for the last 6 years, but not before April 14, 2003. If you request this accounting more than once in a 12 month period, we may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for responding to these additional requests.

Restriction: You have the right to request that we place additional restrictions on our use of disclosure of your health information. We are not required to agree to these additional restrictions, but if we do, we will abide by our agreement (except in an emergency).

Alternative Communication: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your health information by alternative means or to alternative locations. (You must make your request in writing.) Your request must specify the alternative means or location, and provide satisfactory explanation how payments will be handled under the alternative means or location you request.

Amendment: You have the right to request that we amend your health information. (Your request must be in writing, and it must explain why the information should be amended.) We may deny your request under certain circumstances.

Electronic Notice: If you receive this Notice on our Website or by electronic mail (e-mail), you are entitled to receive the Notice in written form.
